The Manhattan Students Did Well, but Could Only Score One Run.

Driscoll's Curves Were Not Too Easily Solved by Prospective Pennant Winners.

PFEEFER MADE A GOOD SHOWING,

And the Veteran's Fielding at Second Base Was Worthy of His Palmy Days-The Regulars Will Face the Jersey City Team To-morrow.

Another portion of hard-boiled baseball was served out at Manhattan Field yes-terday afternoon. The Giants, aided and an o abetted by the Jersey Citys, walloped the Manhattan College team, once known as the Jaspers. They changed their name some time prior to the game.

A larger attendance greeted the players, for the college boys being spurred on by a howling delegation from the seat of learn-out ing. But one run was all the students could wrench from the triple-compound expansion battery arrayed against them. J. Cotter escorted this tally around the circuit in the seventh on his force of Driscoll at second, one base on balls and a wild throw contributed by L. Battam, of Brooklyn. This was the only bad bungle on the New York side, but Larry more he right field bleachers.

tossers. Driscoll and Kelley in the points tolled nobly and J. Cotter played a fine game at first base. Driscoll had a combis and speed and a "gravity drop" ball that worried the Giants at times. Doheny had a good control and plenty of speed, b. t one hit, a double, by McDonald, resulting in four rounds. Wilson ably supported Doheny. In the middle chapters Flynn and Foster, the champion battery of the Virgina Lengue, kept the visitors in doubt until the lone run was ors in doubt that the test of the doubt the edin the seventh. Flynn was a little but the collegians falled to take adage of the bases on balls. J. Bentley mour worked out the last two innings, wing one hit and filling the position like

CHARLES DRYDEN. The Seventh's Games.

In all 549 entries have been received by he Seventh Regiment Athletic Association for the indoor meeting, to be held in the armory on April 11. The companies are expresented by entries as follows: Company A, 48; Company E, 57; Company C, 53; Company D, 81; Company E, 96; Company G, 23; Company H, 65; Company I, 28, and Company A, 37. The interest disolayed by the men of the Seventh is greater than usual. For many seasons, although the games are not conducted under the A. A. U. rules, they have been very popular. Charter Oak Park Sold.

Hartford, Coun., April 4.—Charter Oak Park, the scene of many of the most imorgant races in the country during the last twenty-five years and of great gatherings of bleyele riders at tournaments, was old at auction at noon to-day. The property was knocked down for $19,000 to closel Kennedy.
